Dear Mr. Mordecai

Thank you for your e-mail of 7 March 11:19AM in which you ask about how much cash has been seized by police forces in the UK under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (POCA) in the last financial year. Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000.

The information you have requested is held on the Joint Asset Recovery Database (JARD). Whilst the Home Office has access to the JARD, it does not hold the information you have requested. To obtain the information, you will need to contact each police force in the UK directly. They should be able to provide you with the information you are seeking.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to the address below, quoting reference CR 31013. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.
