Dear Mr Lock,

Your request was received on 5 January 2019 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

Given the Tripos system enables students to read a variety of subjects during their time at Cambridge please provide the following information for recent years.

- 1) the number of students changing from history to law*
- 2) the number of students changing from history to economics*
- 3) the number of students changing from law to history*
- 4) the number of students changing from economics to history*

The requested information is attached for the past 5 years.

Please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF (<https://ico.org.uk/>).
