

Reuse of information provided in response to information requests

Most of the information that we are required to provide to you under any Access to Information legislation will be subject to copyright protection. In most cases the copyright will be owned by Bath and North East Somerset Council. The copyright in other information may be owned by another person or organisation.

Brief extracts of any material which is supplied to you may be reproduced if they fall within the fair dealing provisions of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (sections 29 and 30) for the purposes of research for non-commercial purposes, private study, criticism, review and news reporting. If you intend to reproduce brief extracts for the purpose of news reporting, we would be grateful if you could contact our Press Office in the first instance, on 01225 477495.

More extensive re-use must only be carried out with prior written permission from Bath and North East Somerset Council. If you wish to reuse or further publish any information which has been created or generated by this Council, you should apply to us to do so here:

<http://www.bathnes.gov.uk/services/your-council-and-democracy/data-protection-and-freedom-information/copyright-reusing-public>

If you wish to reuse or further publish any of the enclosed information which belongs to or has been created by or generated by a third party, you should seek the permission of that third party to do so.