5 December 2019

Dear Mr Griffiths,

Thank you for your email of 29 November 2019 querying the information you received in response to the Freedom of Information request you submitted on 5 November 2019.

Please accept my apologies for the fact that the information you received did not address your request fully. I can confirm that this was an error. However, I must inform you that the Ministry of Defence does not hold any additional manuals relating to the Clansman RT-353.

If you would still like to proceed with your internal review request or have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

ISS Secretariat
