Dear [REDACTED] thanks I have now had a look at attached document . It would be really helpful to have some of the missing appendixes particularly Appendix D Detailed Proposal Plans Not having these makes it difficult to assess the document accurately, though clearly it does not meet your business requirements. Lambeth also promised to put all on web site but nothing has appeared. Thanks Kate

Hi Kate – you left me a message regarding Clapham Old Town Business Case. We have received the attached document from Lambeth, which we are currently reviewing. One significant point to note, is that having skimmed the report, it only quantifies the costs / benefits for certain factors (such as collisions and bus journey times). Therefore, one of our comments back to Lambeth will be that this document on its own does not meet our business case requirements and they will need to submit a separate assessment that accords with the criteria set out in TfL's Business Case Development Manual.

Best regards. [REDACTED]
