Dear Mr Wood,

Thank you for your e-mail of 21 September asking for information about the paint colour and font of the TACR2. You requested the following information:

"....the name of the font that would have been used on the TACR 2 in the Royal Air Force in the 1980's, could you also provide the name of the yellow that was used for this font."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is not held.

However, under Section 16 (Advice and Assistance) of the Act, The Museum of RAF Firefighting who can be contacted via their website at www.firemuseum.uk and have an interest in this subject, have informed us that they believe the font used for lettering was Helvetica (Medium) in cobolt blue overlaid on a background of Golden Yellow (GB0356E) paint.

I must make it clear that the museum is a private organisation and not part of the MOD and therefore are not required to provide information. Whilst we are grateful for their assistance we cannot confirm whether the information they have provided is accurate.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

P S Webb
