Welcome back Simon.

I hope you enjoyed your break.

Happy to give you a call later today or tomorrow morning (the latter maybe better for you as today is your first day back) to catch up and update, whichever is best for you.

Ged

Hi Ged,

As of today there are 38 cases outstanding with the main focus currently in clearing seven remaining DN cases which have a deadline of 24 October. I am on leave after today until 26 October, but happy to update by 'phone then if you think that would be helpful.

Best wishes

Simon

Afternoon Simon,

I just wanted to check on the position with the 53 over 6 month cases and whether there has been any progress in the last couple of weeks?

Happy to give yourself or [REDACTED] a call Monday or Tuesday if that's easier.

I'm aware you have a bi-lateral meeting with colleagues on 1 November and that your Permanent Secretary and the Deputy Commissioner are due to meet later in November.

Kind regards,
Ged

Morning Simon [REDACTED]

I was in London yesterday at a Tribunal Hearing but I understand the EN warning letter for your Permanent Secretary was issued yesterday afternoon.

You may already have been informed of this but this email is to make sure you are aware.

Regards,
Ged
