

| Start date on case tracking system | End date on case tracking system | Summary of circumstances giving rise to investigation (as initially reported to IPCC).  | Outcomes: Misconduct   | Outcomes: Criminal | Outcomes: Other                    |
|------------------------------------|----------------------------------|---|--|--------------------|------------------------------------|
| 19/07/06 00:00                     | 30/04/08 00:00                   | Complaint that police failed properly to investigate a reported incident of threatening behaviour against the complainant's husband that preceded his murder and that police failed to keep complainant properly informed following the murder.   | None   | None               | None                               |
| 13/11/07 00:00                     | 16/04/08 00:00                   | Death in custody at Wigan police station.   | None   | None               | Inquest verdict - accidental death |
| 10/06/08 00:00                     | 01/12/08 00:00                   | Accidental discharge of police firearm during training exercise resulting in fatal wound to an officer taking part in the exercise.   | Misconduct Outcomes - Waiting for misconduct proposals from app.authority  | None               | Inquest verdict - unlawful killing |
| 19/02/08 00:00                     | 16/09/08 00:00                   | Police attended a hospital in response to a call from staff that that a man was smashing up a hospital ward. The man was not arrested and was allowed to go home. He was later taken to A&E by police and left there after presenting himself at a police station front desk and saying he was going to throw himself off a bridge. Later that night, the man fell to his death from the window of an 8th floor flat. | None   | None               |                                    |
| 14/04/08 00:00                     | 31/07/08 00:00                   | A man with facial injuries was arrested as wanted on warrant and taken to a police station. While in custody, he was assessed by a Force Medical Examiner who recommended that the man be taken to hospital. The man was assessed as having a head injury and later died of his injuries.   | Performance of duties - formal warnings for two police officers and written warning for police civilian staff member | None               | Inquest verdict - narrative        |