Dear Heidar Anwari,

Your request was received on 26 January 2022 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

*I wanted to know about the statistics of those who failed to make their conditional offers for the Computer Science course G400.
The number of people who failed.
The number who still managed to enrol.
The offer itself
What they achieved
For the years 2021, 2020 and 2019.*

The requested information is attached insofar as it is held. We do not specifically record 'offer met Y/N' but the dataset provided allows you to calculate this information as you see fit. The University has aggregated the data across the time period to prevent the risk of any individual being identified. In presenting the information in this way, the University is engaging the exemption at section 40(3A)(a) of the Act because the release of the raw data would breach the first data protection principle (the fair, lawful and transparent processing of personal data) as set out in the UK General Data Protection Regulation. This part of section 40 confers absolute exemption under the Act.

Please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF (<https://ico.org.uk/>).

Yours sincerely,

Zoe Allwood
