Home Office reference:27011

28 June 2013

Dear Mr Pearsall

Thank you for your email of 30th March in which you ask:
Considering that EU Law and UN treaties states the above, how many complaints have been raised in relation to removal procedures imposed on the parent of a British child?
Please supply all information on the complaints, and any details of cases which have been taken to the ecj in relation to the above.

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We have considered your request and we believe it to be vexatious. Section 14(1) of the Act provides that the Home Office is not obliged to comply with a request for information of this nature.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to the address below, quoting ref 27011. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.
