Dear Mr Haddow,

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 210121002

Thank you for your request dated 21 January 2021 in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

Please provide a copy of any consultation response provided by, or on behalf of, the Home Office to your recent consultation entitled "Reforms to arrangements for obtaining permission to the Court of Appeal".

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

The Ministry of Justice does not hold any information in the scope of your request. This is because we have not received a consultation response from, or on behalf of, the Home Office.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty is to only provide the recorded information held.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to request an internal review by responding in writing to one of the addresses below within two months of the date of this response.

Disclosure Team, Ministry of Justice,

You do have the right to ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to investigate any aspect of your complaint. However, please note that the ICO is likely to expect internal complaints procedures to have been exhausted before beginning their investigation.

Yours sincerely

Liam Halewood
Policy Advisor
