Dear Mr Martin

Re: Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your email of 08 March 2020 in which you requested from the Insolvency Service:

"I would like to see the up to date contact details: Tel , Email is sufficient of all insolvency practitioners licensed to practice in the UK?"

Your request has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I can confirm the agency holds the information that you have requested however, the information you have requested is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and is therefore refused.

Section 21(1) provides that information which is reasonably accessible to the applicant otherwise than under section 1 is exempt information.

The information that you have requested is available to you from <https://www.gov.uk/find-an-insolvency-practitioner>. Please note you can produce a list view of IP's if you select 'search' without entering any criteria in the boxes in search form.

If you are not satisfied with the response we have provided you and would like us to reconsider our decision by way of an internal review (IR), please contact our Information Rights Team at foi@insolvency.gov.uk or by post at:

You also have the right to contact the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) if you wish for them to investigate any complaint you may have in regards to our handling of your request. However, please note that the ICO is likely to expect an IR to have been completed in the first instance. The ICO contact details can be found on their website: <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>.

Kind regards
