Hi Ian

The relevant extract from the constitution reads as follows:

'One representative, on behalf of any objectors to a planning application being considered by the Speakers Panel, will have the facility to address the meeting, up to a maximum of five minutes, subject to having given prior written notice to Planning Services'.

However, the Chair does have discretion to allow further submissions at the meeting, I would stress however, that this obviously at his discretion and not a given.

I have a planning application (ref. 18/00119/FUL) for five houses on land between Grove St and Lindisfarne Road in Ashton that has attract a number of objections from neighbours and which I hope to present to the Panel meeting in November. Three of the objectors have requested to speak at the meeting when the application is presented. Can you advise me, perhaps after liaising with the Chair, what is the procedure. Can I advise each that they will be able to speak? or will they have to elect a single spokesperson?
