Dear [REDACTED],

I write in the hope that you will ensure that Greenwich Time, a newspaper published by the Greenwich Council, no longer appears. It is 80% council propaganda, pushed through everyone's letterboxes every week. Quite apart from the propaganda aspect, it is also extremely dull and not worth reading. Ours goes straight into the wastepaper bin without a glance. Greenwich Time is a total waste of Council money. There is no reason why necessary information to do with council matters should not be published in other more interesting free local papers. It might even get more readers.

As you know publications like the Greenwich Time are illegal under the 2011 code of conduct.

Yours

Adam Pollock
Greenwich resident
