

Individual 21

From: Mark Willingale [REDACTED]
Sent: 01 May 2013 19:44
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Publicity Code consultation
Dear [REDACTED]

My family and I live at [REDACTED] in Shadwell, Tower Hamlets. I am writing in response to the current consultations to protect the independent press from unfair competition in the form of local authority funded and published newspapers.

Copies of "Eastend Life" funded and published by Tower Hamlets Council are regularly delivered through our letterbox. Despite efforts to mellow its self-congratulatory tone and mask its partisan editorial policy this paper is frankly an organ of the local council and should not be part of their remit. The paper should be scrapped and the funds put to proper public use in the best interests of all the community. Accordingly I support a publicity code to halt these partisan local authority publications. For convenience I am emailing from my office.

Yours sincerely,
Mark Willingale
for and on behalf of

Willingale Associates
[REDACTED]

This email was received from the INTERNET and scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisation's IT Helpdesk. Communications via the GSI may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

Correspondents should note that all communications to Department for Communities and Local Government may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for lawful purposes.

16/05/2013