Dear Mr Rafferty

Ref: FOI2018/00111

Freedom of Information Act 2000: correspondence with the British Film Institute

Thank you for your Freedom of Information enquiry of 4 January 2018.

You asked for the following information:

"Can you please provide any correspondence between the Treasury and the British Film Institute directly pertaining to the issue of 'financial freedoms' as outlined in 'The Culture White Paper', published by DCMS in March 2016."

Following a search of our records, I can confirm that HM Treasury does not hold information within the scope of your request.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us. Please quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Rights Unit

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

If you are not happy with this reply, you may request a review by writing to HM Treasury, Information Rights Unit, 3/Red, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ or by emailing us at the address below. Any review request must be made within 2 months of the date of this letter.

Email: foirequests@hmtreasury.gsi.gov.uk

It would assist our review if you set out which aspects of the reply concern you and why you are dissatisfied.

If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by HM Treasury.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.
