Hello Andy,

All the planning applications docs now in public domain so you can find the TA for Newbridge and the BRT by using link below. You will need to scroll down through the documents and will find the TA stuff after the EIA docs but before the comments/objections.

Joy

Thanks for sending me the Eastern Bath P&R TA. Is there any chance that you could also send me the Newbridge TA? I won't need any of the drawings or appendices, so it should be possible to email me the main text rather than needing to send it on CD.

Thanks

Andy
