Dear Ms Askam

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

In your request received on 21 November, you wrote:

"I'm looking to obtain the below information regarding the cost of parking per hour at all NHS hospitals in Scotland over the past five years from January 2012 to January 2017 if possible, or as recent as the data is available from.

Please can you provide the information requested below:

The cost of hourly parking at each hospital within Scotland"

Response

The information you describe is not held by Healthcare Improvement Scotland.

If you do not feel our answer is correct, we must look at your request again. This is called a review. You need to ask us to do this within 40 working days of receiving this letter. Please tell us about your concern by listing any points. The staff who answered your request first time will not decide the review. We will write to you within 20 working days to tell you the decision. To have us start a review please contact:

Dr Sara Twaddle
Director of Evidence
Healthcare Improvement Scotland
Gyle Square
1 South Gyle Crescent
Edinburgh EH12 9EB

Tel: 0131 623 4300

Email: sara.twaddle@nhs.net AND hcis.FOI@nhs.net

If you are unhappy with the decision we give you following a review, there is a right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner. You must contact the Commissioner within 6 months of receiving the letter with our review decision. You can contact the Commissioner by phone on 01334 464 610. An appeal can also be made using the Commissioner's online form:

www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal.

More information about appealing to the Commissioner is available at:
