1) Can you tell us the total costs and time spent on your investigation into a Serious Crime in the Coventry Town Centre on 2nd November 2010 ?

West Midlands Police do not cost police activity for a single incident therefore this information is not held.

2) What guarantees or safeguarding measures are the Police taking, in regard to the safety of the Coventry Town Centre?

Coventry police have daily dedicated patrols of Coventry city centre shared between three neighbourhood teams. In addition and in order to support a vibrant night time economy, additional police resources are provided on Friday and Saturday evenings. This recognises that there are more people visiting the city centre pubs, bars, theatre and restaurants at this time.

Police work closely with licensees, partners and CV1 (camera control room) to do everything possible in promoting a safe and sociable environment for its residents and visitors.
