Man Charged With Six Offences of Fraud

Wednesday February 16, 2011

A 63-year-old man from Banbury in Oxfordshire has been charged with six offences of fraud by false representation and one offence of obtaining a money transfer by deception.

The charges follow a complaint made by the Cotswold Water Park and has been investigated by Gloucestershire Constabulary's Economic Crime Unit.

He has been bailed to appear at Stroud Magistrates Court on March 21.
