Dear G Cole

Freedom of Information Act 2000

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We have detailed below the information that is held.

The value of the Council's Non-Operational Land and Buildings totals £244,534,458 as indicated on the Property Performance Indicator Return & Core Data 2018-19.

Of that figure £50,309,806 represents agricultural property/farmland . The remaining £194,224,652 represents other commercial land and property.

Part of the Council's Non-Operational Land and Buildings portfolio are three adjacent barns at Court Farm, East Street, Falmer, BN1 9PB.

Please supply the following information:

1. Are those three barns part of the Council's agricultural property/farmland or are they part of the Council's other commercial land and property?

Agricultural property/farmland.

2. The value of those three barns represents a portion of the above figures. What is the value of those three barns?

The three barns are not valued individually but are included in the valuation for Court Farm.

3. One of those three barns has undergone a significant internal conversion, the other two have not. Does the Council have a separate valuation for each individual barn?

No.

4. If the Council has a separate valuation for each individual barn what are those valuations?

We do not have a separate valuation.
