Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Notes

Data was extracted from MetMIS on 04/02/2014

Data is subject to small changes over time as crime records are updated with the details of ongoing investigations.

Both data sets use a location code of 253 in MetMIS, which equates to the location code of 'CL - Market Stall/Open Air Stall/Kiosk' in the crime recording system.

Offences are presented by the recorded date, People Proceeded Against are present by the proceedings date. Therefore, there is no direct correlation between the two tables - it is possible for a person to be proceeded against in one year for offences recorded in previous years.

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data.
