Dear Applicant,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO: 0161.2019-20

I write in connection with your request for information which was received by North Yorkshire Police on 8th May 2019. Please accept our apologies for the delay in providing you with a response. I note you seek access to the following information:

I am getting in touch as I wanted to request data showing the number of road accidents that involved cyclists in North Yorkshire. If possible, I'd like to see the number of road accidents involving cyclists for the past five years, but I understand this might not be possible so data for 2018 will be also very much appreciated.

Extent of Searches to Locate Information

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within North Yorkshire Police to locate relevant information.

Decision

I am not obliged to provide you with a response to your request pursuant to Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act). Please note that when one part of your request falls under Section 12, we are not obliged to review the rest of the questions and the whole request is therefore exempt.

Section 12(1) applies to your request as the cost of complying with your request is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of identifying and retrieving any relevant information exceeds the 'appropriate level' as stated in the Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004.

Due to the nature of our recording systems the information requested, if held, is not in an easily retrievable format.

North Yorkshire Police's information systems do not allow for non – injury road traffic collisions/accidents to be categorised based on vehicle type. As such in order to establish whether a pedal cycle was involved in these road traffic collisions/accidents would require a manual read of all recorded files. This would involve reading hundreds of files and as such would exceed the time/cost limit allowed for under the Act.

Pursuant to Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act this letter acts as a Refusal Notice.

Pursuant to Section 16 of the Act I am required to offer you advice and assistance with regarding to refining your request to within the 'appropriate limit' (time/cost limit). We may be able to retrieve data in relation to road traffic collisions/accidents in which injury has occurred. If you would like me to attempt this search please email back refining your request.

Please note that systems used for recording information are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted therefore that this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other responses you may receive.
