Dear Mr Innes

Freedom of Information Request - Reference No: 20172183

REQUEST

Could you please provide me with the number of Islamophobic hate crimes reported between 1st January 2015 and 30th November 2017 broken down by the date they were reported.

RESPONSE

I contacted our Crime Management System (CMS) Administrator for assistance with your request. She has provided me with the enclosed statistics and the following explanation of her search criteria / data caveats:

Prior to April 2016, CMS did not have mandatory markers to identify 'Islamophobic' hate crimes separately to other forms of Religious Hate Crime. However, we did use the Aggravating Factor of Religion to identify such offences in accordance with the Home Office definition therefore I can only provide data from April 2016.

As of April 2016 CMS recorded the following Aggravating factors –

PERCEIVED RELIGION - CHRISTIAN

PERCEIVED RELIGION - BUDDHISM

PERCEIVED RELIGION - HINDU

PERCEIVED RELIGION - JEWISH

PERCEIVED RELIGION - MUSLIM

PERCEIVED RELIGION - SIKH

PERCEIVED RELIGION - OTHER

PERCEIVED RELIGION - NO RELIGION

I have provided a count of offences recorded on the CMS crime register recorded with the PERCEIVED RELIGION – MUSLIM aggravating factor.

Please note that police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide information and statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons this forces response to your questions should not be used for the comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

South Yorkshire Police provides you the right to request a re-examination of your case under its review procedure (copy enclosed). If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Constabulary's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

The South Yorkshire Police in complying with their statutory duty under sections 1 and 11 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to release the enclosed information will not breach the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. However, the rights of the copyright owner of the enclosed information will continue to be protected by law. Applications for the copyright owner's written permission to reproduce any part of the attached information should be addressed to The Force Solicitor, South Yorkshire Police, Police Headquarters, 5 Carbrook Hall Road, Sheffield, S9 2EG

Appeal Process for Freedom of Information

Using this process will not affect your right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner. However, it will usually be quicker if matters can be resolved locally using this process.

Who can appeal?

Anyone who has requested information from the Force in writing can appeal within 20 working days from the date of the response provided. If you have requested information and you are not satisfied with the way we have dealt with your request, you can use the appeal process to have it looked at again. If someone who requested information would like to appeal but cannot do so themselves you can appeal on their behalf, but it will help us if you make it clear that you are doing so.

What can I appeal about?

You can appeal about the range, amount and format of information we have sent following a request. You can also appeal about the way a request was handled – for example, the time it took to respond, or the way letters were worded.

How do I appeal?

You can appeal by writing, emailing or faxing your appeal/complaint to the address below. To deal with your appeal as quickly as possible, it will help if you can give us as much information as you can about the request made, such as the reference number, and the reason for your appeal/ complaint.

What happens to my appeal?

Once we have enough details to identify the request you are concerned about, a qualified person, other than the initial decision maker, will deal with the internal review.

How long does it take?

Whatever their conclusion, you will be informed of the result as soon as possible, and in any case within 20 days of submitting your appeal.

If you are still not satisfied, you may then appeal to the Information Commissioner.
