23 January 2017

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am writing to confirm that the University has now completed its search for the information which you requested on 10 January.

You requested the following:

- Please would you be able to provide me with the details of what student data is shared with the Students' Union upon registration?

For example, name, user ID, e-mail address, etc

We share the following data:

Student ID number
Name
Date of birth
E-mail address
Term-time address
Gender
Nationality
Year of study
Mode of study
Student type (i.e., undergraduate or postgraduate)
Student status ('Enrolled')
Course code
Course name
College
Department within the College
Building access card number

For students who have opted out, we provide:

Student ID number
Name
E-mail address
Student status ('Opted out')

- Additionally, does the university provide this data automatically, or do students have to explicitly opt in/opt out of this data sharing process during registration?

Students may opt-out of having the data provided.

We believe we have provided you with all the information you requested. However, if you are unhappy with the way the University has handled your request, or with the information you have received, you may ask for an internal review. You can do this by sending a letter to:

Secretary to Council
Brunel University London
UXBRIDGE
UB8 3PH

or by sending an e-mail to foirequests@brunel.ac.uk.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
