Dear David Oladiran,

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Thank you for your request, which was received on 4 July, for the following information:

“Thank you for your prompt response to my request. I would like to gain further clarification on sub-request two.

I note your response that there are currently 11 'HMRC Admins', however I believe that there are approximately 32 'HMRC Admin' accounts on the site (I do appreciate that some would have been reallocated to other parts of the organisation or left HMRC completely).

Please could you detail the numbering scheme for 'HMRC Admins'?”

Our response

HMRC Admin numbers are allocated to Forum moderation staff as they take up the role. Over time, staff have moved to other roles or have left HMRC and their access to the Forum is removed. Their Admin numbers have not been reallocated. As new staff become moderators, they are assigned a new number. Currently 11 HMRC Admin numbers are active as moderators on the Community Forum.

If you are not satisfied with our reply, you may request a review within 40 working days of receiving this letter by emailing informationrightsunit@hmrc.gov.uk or by writing to our address at the top.

If you are not content with the outcome of an internal review you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Yours sincerely,

HM Revenue and Customs
