Dear J Phan

Thank you for your email dated 18 March in which you ask for access to the following under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('Fol Act'):

'a comprehensive chart that shows the UK's delinquency rate on debt mapped by sector as it is on the FED's website'

I can confirm that the Bank of England (the 'Bank') holds no information within the scope of your request.

However, you may wish to be aware that the Bank publishes a range of monetary and financial statistics on our website. In particular, the Statistical Interactive Database includes data on provisions for bad and doubtful debts as well as data on write offs of loans which may be of interest to you. The data can be accessed using the links below:

Provisions on bad and doubtful debts:

Your right to complain under the Fol Act

If you are unhappy with the Bank's response, you may ask for that decision to be reviewed internally. In order to do so, please set out the grounds for your appeal and send it to Wendy Galvin, Information Access Team (TS-Mz), Communications Directorate, Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, London, EC2R 8AH or by email to enquiries@bankofengland.co.uk for the attention of Wendy Galvin.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
