Dear R Brocklehurst,

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your request of 21st February 2024 to UK Government Investments' ("UKGI") Freedom of Information ("FOI") enquiries inbox.

I refer to your request for information as follows:

I noted that a senior UKGI Director, Andy Butterworth joined UKGI from Deloitte in 2016. Did Mr Butterworth at any time have a role in investigating Horizon on behalf of Deloitte in a review commissioned by Chairman of POL Tim Parker, at any time prior to his (Mr Butterworth's) joining UKGI? Since his joining UKGI, has Mr Butterworth had any involvement in handling matters in relation to the Post Office in his role?

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "Act"), you have the right to:

- know whether we hold the information you require; and
- be provided with that information (subject to any exemptions under the Act which may apply).

In relation to the first part of the request, Andy Butterworth did not have any role in investigating Horizon whilst employed by Deloitte.

As to the second part of your request, we can confirm that Andy Butterworth has not been a member of the UKGI Post Office Limited Shareholder team since joining UKGI.

Appeals procedure

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original request and should be addressed to the UKGI FOI team:

Email: freedomofinformation@ukgi.gov.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely,

UK Government Investments
