Dear Mr Hall,

Thank you for your correspondence of 28 November, in which you made the following request for information:

Could you provide me with the figure of how many fleet vehicles are owned by the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport?

Additionally, what is the average length of ownership of these vehicles by the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport?

We have dealt with your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act). I can confirm that the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) does not have information within scope of your request.

This is because the department does not own any vehicles and the vehicles used by the department's ministers are leased and maintained by the Government Car Service. For more information on the vehicles used by DCMS you may like to contact the Department for Transport (DfT).

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Team
Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport

Complaints and comments

As is customary in our replies, I should explain that if you are dissatisfied with any aspect of our response to your request for information, and/or wish to appeal against information being withheld from you, please send full details within two calendar months of the date of this response to: foi@dcms.gov.uk. You have the right to ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to investigate any aspect of your complaint. Please note that the ICO is likely to expect internal complaints procedures to have been exhausted before beginning an investigation.
