Freedom of Information Request

Dear Ms Moss,

Thank you for your email of 19th January 2015, in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

- “1. The number of people each year since 2010 who have submitted LPA forms to be registered with the OPG.
2. What percentage of these people each year from 2010 who have submitted LPA forms made errors that meant their LPA could not be registered with the OPG as the donor had intended.
3. Can you distinguish for each year since 2010 between these 2 figures, i.e. those LPAs that cannot be accepted at all and those LPAs that can ...Please tell me these figures each year since 2010”

Your request has been passed to me because I have responsibility for answering requests relating to Freedom of Information and Data Protection on behalf of the Office of the Public Guardian (OPG).

Your request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Under the Act, the department is required to provide you with a response within 20 working days. I will write to you by in response to your request for information by 16th February 2015.

The Freedom of Information Act includes a number of exemptions to releasing information. Some of these are qualified exemptions which require us to consider whether it is in the public interest to disclose or withhold the information. In these circumstances we may need more time to consider your request, and if this is the case I will write to you by the date above to inform you of when you can expect to receive a response.

If you have any queries regarding this request please do not hesitate to contact me, quoting ref: FOI-Jan-15-005 in all future correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Hannah Scarr
