Hello,

I would like to request a copy of the Marble Hill clip from below. I am working on a Freedom of Information Request concerning Marble Hill House and am keen to know where they have obtained their information from.

Kind regards

Fran

MARBLE HILL HOUSE AND PARK

Plans by English Heritage to revive the 18th century Marble Hill House and park are attracting 'strong local opposition'. The article says that the charity is accused of 'planning the Disneyfication of one of England's best Palladian villas', which currently loses £280,000 a year. The piece also says that English Heritage is battling financial problems.
