Dear Ms Mackey

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am pleased to provide some of the information you have requested. I have detailed below the information.

Whilst we hold the information you have requested, we believe its disclosure would breach the principles of the Data Protection Act. Specifically, the first principle requires that "personal data shall be processed fairly and lawfully and, in particular, shall not be processed unless:

1. (a) lawful,

(b) fair and transparent

2. The processing of personal data is lawful only if and to the extent that:

(a) at least one of the conditions in Schedule 9 is met, and

(b) in the case of sensitive processing, at least one of the conditions in Schedule 10 is also met.

We believe that the individual(s) has a reasonable expectation that their personal data will not be disclosed to a third party; therefore, disclosure is exempt under Section 40 (2) of the Freedom of Information Act.

Please quote the reference number 1982966 in any future communications about this request.

Section 17 (7) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act states that public authorities must provide applicants with details of how they may complain about the handling of their request for information should they wish to. If you are not satisfied with the way your request has been dealt with then you can request an internal review within 40 days of receiving our response. This should be directed to the Information Management and Governance Lead, 1st Floor, Magdalen House, 30 Trinity Road, Bootle, Merseyside, L20 3NJ or email: xxx.xxxxxxxxxx@xxxxxx.xxx.xxx

Should you choose to request a review of the decision taken and are dissatisfied following the authority's review, you are entitled under Section 17 (7) (b) of the Act to apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision notice. Further information can be found at:
