Dear Mr Kilker

I am writing with regards to your request for a review, which we received on 6 July 2016. In your original request you asked for:

...all documentation for the above road closure, there being no indication on available advertisements of who was actually responsible for the 'street party'.

The Council responded with:

This was applied for by the Tredworth Tenants and Residents Association and was processed as part of our order for the Queen's 90th Birthday Celebrations.

You do not feel that this can be all the documentation held in relation to this matter and have also submitted some further questions:

Was a fee due in return for the closure?

What was the precise time of closure, and re-opening?

Is the person who applied on the association's behalf named, or is that the only identification available?

I have now completed my investigation into your complaint and can provide the following information:

Please find attached copies of the documentation the Council holds in relation to this matter. I apologise for this documentation not being provided in our original response to you.

We have carefully considered your request and have come to the decision that some of the information is personal data as defined by the Data Protection Act 1998; it is information about someone else and, by law*, I'm unable to give this to you.

Was a fee due in return for the closure?

There was no charge to applicants for this.

What was the precise time of closure, and re-opening?

The road was closed between 10:00am and 6:00pm.

Is the person who applied on the association's behalf named, or is that the only identification available?

The person who applied on the association's behalf is named as the chairman of the association and their details are available on the association's website at:

*As you are not the data subject, release of this information would constitute a breach of principle 1 of the Data Protection Act. Principle 1 states that personal data shall be processed (used) fairly and lawfully and, in particular, shall not be processed unless at least one of the conditions in Schedule 2 is met; in this case none of the conditions in Schedule 2 have been met.

This means that the section 40 exemption of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA) is engaged; this email therefore acts as a refusal notice under section 17 of the FoIA as some of the information you have requested is exempt from disclosure.
