Freedom of Information Request Reference N^o: FOI 001999/18

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies on the 6th June 2018 in which you sought access to the following information:

Please can you tell me how many police officers in your force have been under investigation for perpetrating domestic abuse related incidents in each of the years 2017, 2016, and 2015.

Response to your Request

The response provided below is correct as of 19th June 2018.

Norfolk and Suffolk Constabularies have located the following information as relevant to your request.

A review of cases recorded by the Joint Professional Standards Department has been undertaken for the calendar years 2015, 2016 and 2017. The following number of cases is where an officer has been recorded as the alleged perpetrator, in relation to a domestic related incident, and the report has been referred to PSD as per the force policy.

NORFOLK

2015	1
2016	1
2017	1

The decision taken by Professional Standards was that two of the officers were found to have no case to answer and one officer received Management Action.

SUFFOLK

2015	2
2016	1
2017	3

The decision taken by Professional Standards was the four cases were not misconduct and were recorded for reference only. One officer received Management Action and one officer received a Final Written Warning at a misconduct meeting for breaches of Standards of Professional Behaviour.

This response will be published on the Constabularies web-site under the Freedom of Information pages:-
