Dear Jo Gemini-Smithe,

We write in response to your recent request for information, which we received on 13 August 2020. We are now in a position to provide a response.

We have dealt with your request in accordance with your 'right to know' under section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Request

Please provide the DPIA that was undertaken on authorising that Elizabeth Denham may process personal data whilst based in Canada.

If a DPIA has not been undertaken, please provide the documented reasons as to why not.

Response

We can confirm that we do not hold information in scope of your request.

If it is of interest to you, we have provided guidance about the circumstances where a data protection impact assessment (DPIA) is required or should be considered on our website.

This concludes our response to your request.

Review Procedure

If you are dissatisfied with this response and wish to request a review of our decision or make a complaint about how your request has been handled you can write to the Information Access Team at the address below or e-mail accessicoinformation@ico.org.uk.

Your request for internal review should be submitted to us within 40 working days of receipt by you of this response. Any such request received after this time will only be considered at the discretion of the Commissioner.

If having exhausted the review process you are not content that your request or review has been dealt with correctly, you have a further right of appeal to this office in our capacity as the statutory complaint handler under the legislation. To make such an application, please write to our Customer Contact Team at the address given or visit our website if you wish to make a complaint under the Freedom of Information Act.

A copy of our review procedure can be accessed from our website.

Yours sincerely

Shannon Keith
