Dear Isaac Roberts,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (Fol) request received on 4 June. You wrote:

“Please provide the full text of the "Things to do" section on the "How to become Race Confident" intranet page contained within the "Anti-Racism Hub" on the DWP intranet site.”

DWP Response

We confirm that we do hold the information you have requested.

Whilst you have only requested the information from the ‘Things to do’ section of this page, it is important to note that above all of these resources is a ‘Things to keep in mind’ section which states: “The list is not exclusive or exhaustive: other colleagues may have other resources to share and/or you may identify other material that you consider valuable. The views expressed by the authors of these works are their own and you may of course have different views. Inclusion of a resource on the list does not imply that the views expressed by the author should be attributed to DWP’s position in relation to race equality and its expectations of its employees are as detailed in our published policy and guidance documents...”
