Dear Mr Jones,

Thank you for your email dated 5 September 2018, which asked for the following information:

Many thanks for your very detailed reply. As a follow-up request, can you advise me as to the modification state of the four Mk10 seat assemblies involved in the Moray Firth Tornado collision?

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). A search has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

I am, however, withholding this information under absolute exemption Section 21 of the FOI Act (information accessible by other means). The information requested was provided to you on 30 November 2017, and can be found through the following link:

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

DE&S Secretariat
