Mark – as ever!

Yes, [REDACTED] would be expected to declare as NPI and stay/vote.

Hi Jackie,

Very interesting indeed for what seemed to be a non agenda!

I agree that this is not a disclosable pecuniary interest. I assume that this is a disclosable non-pecuniary interest in that [REDACTED] is appointed by the Town Council to the Almshouses. I don't know the ins and outs of your procedures but would have expected that he would declare the interest but would stay and take part in the discussion and vote, at least that would be what would happen if it was a Swale matter I was asked to advise on..

Regards

Mark

Mark – hope you enjoyed last night. Very Faversham, I must say.

I have responded to [REDACTED] as attached email, but he seemed concerned enough to want me to run it past you. Am I right?

Jackie,

Planning on Monday includes a tree at the almshouses. What's the advice, please, for councillors who are FTC-appointed trustees of FMC or co-optative trustees, and bearing in mind that this is a planning application rather than a trustee appointment?

I wonder whether it is one to run past the monitoring officer, granted that it is election time soon and some people are anti FTC and FMC.

Secondly, I saw Graeme Tuff at a meeting last week. That Crescent Road lawn where the telegraph pole has just landed is one of his patches, apparently. Is the letter of objection minuted in Public Realm also going to him, or can it? I think that Swale, as landowner, would be the objector with legal status, according to the notice on the pole.

Regards,

[REDACTED] – I think this is a non-pecuniary interest. Government advice on this is as follows:

A person's pecuniary interests are their business interests (for example their employment, trade, profession, contracts, or any company with which they are associated) and wider financial interests they might have (for example trust funds, investments, and assets including land and property).

I will ask Mark Radford just to be safe.
