Dear Dr Campbell,

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”)

We refer to your three emails of 10 August 2018 in which you requested information under the FOI Act from NHS Improvement. This response addresses all three requests.

Your request

You made the following requests:

- “1) All emails/letters/communications between Senior Agency Policy Lead Cathy Corrie and the following party over the period February 2017 until July 2018: Gary Snart of HealthTrust Europe Framework (specifically director at Total Workforce Solutions);*
- 2) All emails/letters/communications between Senior Agency Policy Lead Cathy Corrie and the following individual over the period February 2017 until July 2018: MD of Brookson's Direct- Jon Bennett;*
- 3) All emails/letters/communications between Senior Agency Policy Lead Cathy Corrie and the following parties over the period February 2017 until July 2018: Mark Frampton of HMRC”*

Decision

NHS Improvement does not hold any information relating to the above requests.

Review rights

If you consider that your request for information has not been properly handled or if you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you can try to resolve this informally with the person who dealt with your request. If you remain dissatisfied, you may seek an internal review within NHS Improvement of the issue or the decision. A senior member of NHS Improvement's staff, who has not previously been involved with your request, will undertake that review.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of any internal review, you may complain to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether your request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the FOI Act.

A request for an internal review should be submitted in writing to FOI Request Reviews, NHS Improvement, Wellington House, 133-155 Waterloo Road, London SE1 8UG or by email to nhsi.foi@nhs.net.

Publication

Please note that this letter will shortly be published on our website. This is because information disclosed in accordance with the FOI Act is disclosed to the public at large. We will, of course, remove your personal information (e.g. your name and contact details) from the version of the letter published on our website to protect your personal information from general disclosure.

Yours sincerely,

NHS Improvement
