Dear Mr Hallimond

Internal review – Freedom of Information Request

Further to your email of 17th June in which you requested a review of your Freedom of Information request, concerning Emergency Protection Orders.

A review Panel comprising of the Information Compliance Manager and myself have considered your request for an internal review.

It is the view of the panel that although information is not held in an easily retrievable format, the Constabulary does hold information relevant to your request.

The panel has revised the decision of the Freedom of Information Coordinator not to disclose this information and an amended response is enclosed.

Should you be dissatisfied with this decision, you may make application to the Information Commissioner at www.ico.gov.uk for a decision on whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Yours sincerely

Paul Marshall
Temporary Assistant Chief Constable
