Dear Rowan Bridge,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - INFORMATION REQUEST - 8396

The Council has now considered your request received on 26/02/2020 and our response to your questions is shown below.

How many visits have your Local Authority Officers made to licensed Scrap Metal Dealers in order to enforce the provisions of the Scrap Metal Dealers Act 2013 since October 2018? - 6

How many closure orders have been issued or enforcement actions undertaken by yourselves against scrap metal dealers, both mobile and site-based, since October 2018? - 0

The supply of information in response to a freedom of information request does not confer an automatic right to re-use the information. Under UK copyright law you can use any information supplied for the purposes of private study and non-commercial research without requiring permission. Similarly, information supplied can also be re-used for the purposes of news reporting. An exception to this is photographs.

For other forms of re-use, for example publishing the information, you would need the permission of the organisation or person who owns the copyright. In the case of information produced by Carlisle City Council you can re-use the information under the Open Government Licence. For information about this please see

<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/open-government-licence.htm>

If, however, the copyright is identified as belonging to somebody else, you will need to apply for permission. For information about how to obtain permission from a third party, please go to Intellectual Property Office's website at

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/intellectual-property-office>

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of when the response was issued. An independent reviewing officer unconnected with the original request will review the decision.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications. If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
