Requested information

Dear Bath and North East Somerset Council, Please can you advise the benefits afforded to the Customer service director additional to the salary, ie in monetary terms for Travel, Accommodation in Bath, Subsistence and any other monetary remuneration he receives

Response

Over the period from 1 April 2017, which is a typical period, Ian Savigar as Divisional Director for Customer Services has received £388.60 for mileage and public transport for Council business purposes, nil for home to work transport, nil for accommodation in Bath (or the area) and has been reimbursed £223.00 for his annual professional subscription in line with Council policy.
