Dear Robert Simpson,

Thank you for your e-mail of 18 March, in which you ask for a copy of notices issued by the European Operational Policy Team between and including 22 October 2014 and 29 February 2016. Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I can confirm that we hold the information you have requested. The Free Movement Policy Team (formerly the European Operational Policy Team) has issued 8 notices during the period you have specified and I am releasing them to you as Annexes 1-8 to this response. Names and telephone numbers of individual staff members referred to in the notices have been redacted in accordance with section 40(2) of the Act on the ground this information constitutes personal data. It is Home Office policy not to identify members of staff below senior civil service (SCS) grade. I can confirm that the relevant staff members are all below SCS grade.

Furthermore, I have removed links to the staff intranet, since these links are not accessible outside of the Home Office.

These minor exceptions aside, the notices have been released to you in full.

I trust that this response meets your needs. If, however, you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to the address below, quoting reference 38988. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.
