3 July 2020

Dear Mr Jervis,

Thank you for your emails of 28 January in which you asked for the following information:

*"As the new owner of the Ex- Army Land Rover Pulse Ambulance.
I request any information and history of this Vehicle , service records, repairs etc. No. NT 64
AA."*

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held and is attached.

Under Section 16 (Advice and Assistance), you may wish to contact the Royal Logistic Corps Museum who may be able to assist your research. The contact details for the museum are below. You should be advised, however, that they may make a charge for their services. The museum may also be closed currently due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,
Army Secretariat
