

Requested information

Response is in red type.

Could you provide me with a list of any buildings in Aberdeen that are defined by the Department for Housing Communities and Local Government as residential buildings over 18m tall or public buildings, with cladding systems that have failed large scale system tests.

Please also inform me as to whether they are publicly or privately owned.

Within B&NES Council there are no records held of any such buildings in B&NES.