The data provided has been collected from a variety of sources as part of the land registration process. Whilst we make every effort to ensure that the data we provide is as accurate as possible we cannot guarantee it is fit for your intended purpose or use.

The data is also subject to Crown copyright. You may use the data for personal use/research, but this does not entitle you to reuse it for any other purpose (including commercial use, marketing or publication). If you wish to reuse the information, please let us know what your intended use is, so we can consider this further.

If you are not satisfied with our handling of your request, then you may request an internal review.

Please clearly indicate that you wish for a review to be conducted and state the reason(s) for requesting the review.

Please note that it is usual practice to accept a request for an internal review within 40 working days from the date we have issued this response. The Section 45 FOIA code of practice advises that public authorities are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this period.

Please be aware that the review process will focus upon our handling of your request and whether HM Land Registry have complied with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The internal review process should not be used to raise concerns about the internal processes of other HM Land Registry functions.

If you are unhappy with other aspects of the HM Land Registry actions, please see our website for information on how to raise a concern or complaint.

To request a review please contact:
