Dear Mr Wilby

Your request for information

We refer to your email of 21 November 2018 in which you made a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). We have considered your request and this letter sets out our response.

Your request is for the IPCC final investigation report relating to ACC Terry Sweeney. This officer was relevant to Operation Poppy which was in three parts. Our investigation summaries are available on The National Archive web site:

- Operation Poppy 1 summary.pdf
- Operation Poppy 2 summary.pdf
- Operation Poppy 3 summary.pdf

I hope that you find this helpful. Please remember to quote reference number 1007321 in any future correspondence about this request.

If you are not satisfied with this response you may request an internal review by an independent internal reviewer, who has had no involvement in dealing with your request. If you wish to complain about any aspect of this decision, please contact:

Reviewing Officer
Independent Office for Police Conduct
PO Box 473

All emails requesting a review should be sent directly to:

dpo1@policeconduct.gov.uk

Should you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you will have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner; however, I should point out that the effect of section 50(2)(a) of the FOIA is that you are normally obliged to exhaust the IOPC's own complaint mechanism before complaining to the Information Commissioner.

Yours sincerely
