10th February 2016

Dear Miss Roberts,

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – RFI20160177

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act ('the Act') of 18th January 2016 seeking:

“Thank you for your reply numbered RFI20152173 which adequately provides responses for two of the records requested. Please list the other ninety eight in tabular format showing reference number and nature of request.”

Please find attached the information you have requested. Please note that some information has been removed under section 40(2) (personal information) of the Act. Under section 40(2) of the Act, personal information about identifiable living individuals is exempt if disclosure to a third party would breach one or more principles in the Data Protection Act 1998. The individuals concerned would not expect their personal data, such as their name to be disclosed to a third party. To do so would be unfair; therefore, disclosure would breach the First Data Protection Principle (fair and lawful processing).

I hope this satisfies your request.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow SK9 5AF. Telephone 01625 545 745 or see <http://www.ico.gov.uk/>

Yours sincerely,
