

Extract from briefing paper prepared for the Principal – ‘China Trip’

Text relating to the ‘Chinese government’ contained within the briefing paper:

Guangzhou

- However, the Greater Bay Area around Guangzhou, Macau, and Hong Kong is an area that, whilst heavily developed, has not had a focused educational strategy, which the Chinese government is now trying to develop. There is, therefore, considerable government resources for supporting universities entering into the area.

Telephone Conversation with British Council

- There are also various levels of support that can be negotiated from different levels of Chinese governments.
- Approval for new partnerships must go through the central government. Health is a huge area and there is likely to be interest in this.
