Date: 29 July 2020

Dear Ms Smith

Freedom of Information Act 2000 - 7857972

Thank you for your request for information which was received on 2 June 2020.

You requested: "I would like to know:

- 1. How much money has the government granted to Tell MAMA, with a breakdown of this funding per year since Tell MAMA was founded.*
- 2. How much money has the government granted to Faith Matters, with a breakdown of this funding per year since Faith Matters was founded.*
- 3. How much money has the government granted to Stop Funding Hate?*
- 4. How much money has the government granted to SCE-ME (CIC 07504666)?*
- 5. How much money has the government granted to Stop Hate UK?"*

This request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I can confirm that we hold information within scope of your request but I am withholding it as explained below.

This information is exempt from disclosure under section 38(1) (a) and (b) of the FOI Act as disclosing it would be likely to endanger the physical or mental health, and the safety, of an individual.

Information falling within this exemption must still be provided however unless it is not in the public interest to do so.

There is always a degree of benefit in making information held by public authorities available as it increases public participation in decision making and aids the transparency and accountability of government. This, in turn, may serve to increase public trust and confidence in the policy decisions made by ministers and in good governance.

However, we consider that there is also a significant public interest in ensuring the safety of individuals or groups of individuals and that disclosure of the information you have requested would be likely to endanger the safety of people who work for, or are associated with, the specified organisations.

I have decided, on balance, that it is not in the public interest to disclose this information.
